In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) (Official Journal of the EU L 119 p. 1), hereinafter referred to as GDPR, I hereby inform you that:

- 1) The Controller of your personal data is the Museum of Polish Children – victims of totalitarianism. The German Nazi camp for Polish children in Łódź (1942-1945), 90-103 Łódź, ul. Piotrkowska 90, tel. 798 287 196, email: sekretariat@muzeumdziecipolskich.pl, represented by the Director – hereinafter referred to as the Museum.
- 2) The Inspector of Personal Data Protection, Arkadiusz Zarębski, can be contacted by email at: abi_daz@outlook.com.
- 3) Your personal data will be processed for the purpose of fulfilling the agreement, on the basis of:
– Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR – processing is necessary for the performance of an agreement to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into an agreement.
- 4) In connection with the processing of data for the purpose referred to in point 3, the recipients of your personal data may be:
 - public authorities and entities performing public tasks or acting on behalf of public authorities, to the extent and for the purposes that result from the provisions of generally applicable law;
 - other entities which, on the basis of relevant agreements signed with the Museum, process personal data for which the Museum is the Controller.
- 5) Personal data will be stored for the period necessary to achieve the purposes set out in point 3, and thereafter for the period and to the extent required by the provisions of generally applicable law, in accordance with the Act of 14 July 1983 on the national archival resources and archives and the official file classification system.
- 6) You have:
 - under Article 15 of the GDPR, the right of access to the personal data you have provided;
 - under Article 16 of the GDPR, the right to rectification of the personal data you have provided;
 - under Article 17 of the GDPR, the right to erasure of data where:
 - the data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected and there is no legal basis for their continued processing;
 - the personal data are being processed unlawfully;
 - under Article 18 of the GDPR, the right to request the controller to restrict the processing of personal data, subject to the cases referred to in Article 18(2) of the GDPR;
 - the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office if you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes the provisions of the GDPR;
- 7) Your personal data will not be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, pursuant to Article 22 of the GDPR.
- 8) The Controller does not intend to transfer your data to a third country or an international organisation.
- 9) Providing personal data is mandatory to the extent necessary to sign the agreement in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Code.
